

HACKNEY
MUSIC
DEVELOPMENT TRUST

HMDT

ENSURING A MUSICAL FUTURE

PRESENTS

ODYSSEAN VARIATIONS

by Matthew King

Natalie Clein
cello

Conductor Jonathan Gill
Orchestra of the Centre for Young Musicians Hackney

Saturday
28 June 2008
7.30pm

Tickets £8.00

LSO St Luke's
161 Old Street
London EC1V 9NG

LSO St Luke's

Barbican Box Office
020 7638 8891

(opening times: 9am-8pm Mon-Sat, 11am-8pm Sun, booking fee)

iso.co.uk/lsostlukes (reduced booking fee)

www.hmdt.org.uk

This exciting world premiere for virtuoso cellist Natalie Clein and Chamber Orchestra, charts Odysseus's return voyage from the ravaged city of Troy. The variations describe his adventures with the one-eyed Cyclops, clashing rocks, singing sirens, ghosts in the Kingdom of the Dead and Circe the sorceress who turns humans into pigs.

Plus new works
by Joseph Finlay and Sam Q Smith.

Xtra!

the learning trust
the future for education in Hackney